
CI NETSEC Club

Cyber Security Club

Advisor: Kevin Scrivnor

(kevin.scrivnor@csuci.edu)

Speaker: Richie Zins

0x325

CSUCI NETSEC CLUB CTF TEAM

- Competed in several CTF events
- Top 50 in first
- Top 30 in most recent
- Presented two talks to the club about the solutions.

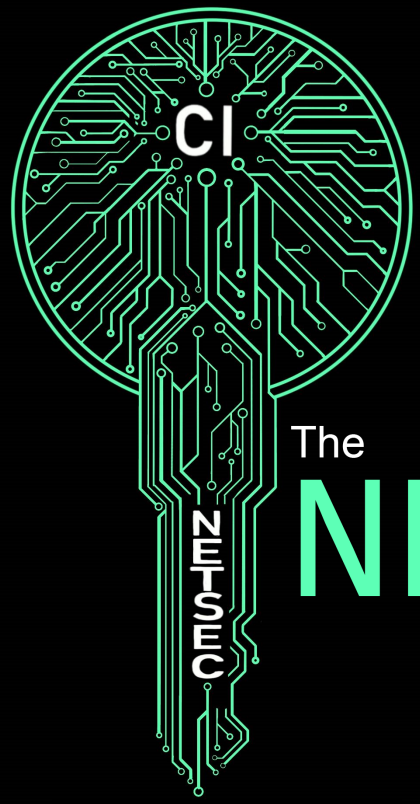
Goal

- Provide an inclusive environment in which any student an participate in undergraduate security research.
- Meet experts in industry and discuss real world issues.
- Compete in online international CTF’s

CTF
SWAMPCTF TV
CTF
Scoreboard

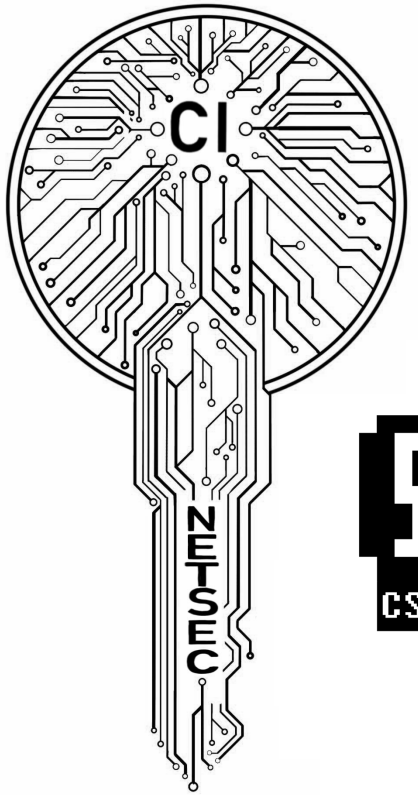
Introduction to Ethical Hacking

- First official event
- Great turn out
- Simple gentle introduction



The NETSEC Club Presents

```
$ cat event
Introduction to Ethical Hacking
$ cat /etc/crontab
0 13 1 3 5 /Sierra/1131/host_event.sh
```



0x325

CSUCI NETSEC CLUB CTF TEAM

Presents

2019 Swamp-CTF Solutions
A two part series

Sierra Hall 1131

part I apr 15 @ 715pm

part II
apr 29 @ 715pm

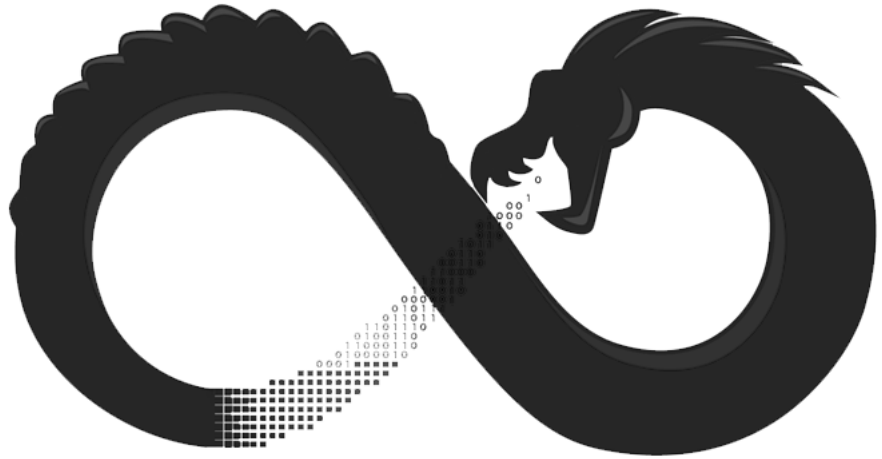
#_

CTF Meetings

- Discuss solutions
- How-to sessions
- Decide on events to compete in

“Tools of the Trade” Event

- Event where we learned how to use various tools
- Ghidra
  - NSA’s reverse engineering tool
- Kali Linux
  - Penetration Testing



GHIDRA

KALI

MIT Enterprise Forum: Cyber Security: 5th Generation Threats

Looking for Industry Support

- We'd like to thank the following:
  - Zane Gittens
  - Kyle Donnelly

- Contact: kevin.scrivnor@csuci.edu